

What does your child's schooling experience need to provide them with to assist them to be effective contributing adults in the future?

Self Development

Multiple intelligence teaching

Integrate multiple abilities

Emphasis on physical activity - playground games, daily activity, holistic approach

More creativity, versatility and adaptability, initiative

Emphasis on emotional intelligence and empathy

Parental involvement in the hiring/placement of staff to ensure a good fit

Social Responsibility - integrated with curriculum within the classroom

A strong sense of self and confidence, experience of success

Roots of Empathy

Peace Keeping Skills

ESL support

Stable Pathways For Alternative Education

Staff and Parent liason for other alternative schools

Assistance in managing transitions

Deepen Learning

Theme approach to learning

Culinary arts - home economics, shop, life skills

Recovering of the arts - visual arts, drama, dance, music, vocal

Peace Keeping Skills

Outdoor Education Opportunities

Roots of Empathy

Better critical thinking skills

Re-establishment of DPA, intramural sports, non-traditional activities i.e. YOGA, scheduled

Community Building

Professional development for teachers - new and experienced to match teacher to schools with on going support

Use of our internal community volunteers to enrich the lives of our children

Peace Keeping Skills

Mechanism for continuity

Parental involvement in the hiring/placement of staff to ensure a good fit

Inclusion and support (with appropriate resources and accommodations) for students with multiple abilities and disabilities - regardless of financial constraints

Roots of Empathy

Social Responsibility - integrated with curriculum within the classroom

Ways to strengthen the parent-teacher partnership - continued expectation of open door policy

ESL support

