

What does your child's schooling experience need to provide them with to assist them to be effective contributing adults in the future?

What are the skills children today will need to function in their future context?

What kinds of things will need to function in this school to enhance the community in the future?

2. What programs/structures need to be put in place to address these visionary wishes? i.e. How do we make this happen?

